

Client Communication Briefing

July 13, 2009

We wanted to make you aware of a couple of changes at Financial Service Group. First, Greg Cipov will be leaving at the end of this week to pursue a career in high school education. He plans to return to school this fall to earn a master's degree at UW-Whitewater so he can teach high school economics or business. Greg joined us two and a half years ago and was instrumental in many new initiatives at Financial Service Group. He will be missed deeply but we are supportive of his efforts to pursue his passions and anticipate he will have much success in the future.

Second, Joy Clady will be increasing her role at Financial Service Group by assuming many of Greg's duties. Joy became a full-time employee on July 1st in order to make Greg's transition as smooth as possible. You can expect to see and hear more from Joy in the future as she continues to enhance client relationships.

Everyone else continues in their same roles and we all hope you enjoy the rest of your summer.
